ion of Haryland last June. Some facts is partial corroboration of this report saw known here. His believed the ensery is beening to avenge the foray of General Klipstrick, and that walls (e.g. Ginnat is proparing. For the capture of Richmond, Lee will exceute one of his boliotest movements, thusdon his communications with the rebel capital, and under a duck for Washington or for the rear of the army. Two of our colders were supported yesterday near Winneson, Hill, showing that the rebel scotts are writhn our lines, and active preparations for the desirence of the forts strong Washington, indicate that the milliary authantities are appendicable of a foray, at least, if not for a movement of the main body of Line's army toward the National Capital.
